

168 Montelena CT, Mountain View, CA

Home Overview

The family(husband, wife, daughter, dog) have lived here for more than 17 years! Our daughter was educated in local schools from elementary to high school

We love living here and made one of the best gardens in the community

We care about plants, animals and people

We have found our new journey after our daughter graduated so we like to rent out this lovely home and seek you as the new home owner here

Community Overview

It is Mountain View address but it is Los Altos schools with some of the top schools in the state

The community is very friendly with one gate entrance, school bus is available, cal train is nearby

The nearby San Antonia Village is a new lifestyle plaza, top movie theaters, restaurants, shopping, facebook office etc.
